

Watercolor Workshop with Lorraine Watry

FEATHERED REFLECTIONS

May 19-21, 2027, 9:30am-4pm with a 1 hour lunch break
Holland Area Arts Council | 150 E 8th St Suite 200, Holland, MI 49423

This workshop will focus on painting a Pelican and it's reflection. This workshop will teach skills and techniques to create the dark patterned water, the birds reflection, and the Pelican's feathers. Lorraine will also discuss and demonstrate color theory while walking through the steps of the painting.

During this workshop: Students will explore how to create the spray of water behind the bird and the soft focus reflection. We will explore methods and colors for painting the white feathers and the bright orange beak. A variety of techniques will be used including, wet-on-wet, layering, edge-softening, and masking.

Lorraine Watry, NWS, AWS, TWSA, AWA, is an award-winning watercolor artist and Past President of the National Watercolor Society. Lorraine's watercolor paintings of wildlife, landscapes, glass, and metal, depict quiet moments full of light and color.
